By I. A. FLEMING.

Wall Street was cheerful enough when the opening time arrived, and the immediate effect was a sharp rally here and there throughout the list. London was buying, and the shorts showed nervousness. But there were weak apots. Union Pacific, Southern Pacific, and the Itili shares did not act well, and after a time the list began to wabble, the hears taking this as a signal for renewed pressire.

as might have been expected, the court asstained the ruling in the Minnesotta rate case and overruide the lower courts zenerally, holding in only three minor instances that rates were conflectory.
The State was authorized to make application to the lower court at such time as rates were made compensating to sheck further advances.

The Attorney General made the statement that he had nothing to say regarding the Union Pacific-Southern Pacific case, and as the Supreme Court this now decisions came down-though just why they should have any influence is a question-the low prices of the day were made, and from these there was but slight recovery.

Grains Advance.

The decline in stocks was accentuated by the sharp rise in the prices of grains, beat advancing 1-4, corn, 1-2, and eats, 7-4. This was due to the reports of he drought in the West and Southest. Anything that affects the cropoutlook is unfortunity for the stock ist.

Currency Legislation.

In his conference with the newspaper men yesterday the President indicated that he wanted it understood that he wanted it understood that he did not assume to know all about currency or was himself alone making up a luli. He has been simply going ever the work of others. There are no longer and great variations of views on linancial principles of the measure. No stock is a larger to the work of others, there are no longer staken by the President in the reports of the lack of harmony smong Democrats. On Currency Legislation.

The American Banker declares that George M. Reprodix, late head of the American Bankerr Association, and the active head of the Continental-Commercial Bank, of Chicago, has been at the White House going over currenty legislation matters with Mr. Wilson.

Other bankers are also said to have given much advice on the matter, and one prominent bank president recently declared that the "currency bill presented to Congress would be safe and sans."

The monetary investigation is ended.

The fortnightly statistics show that the European stocks of copper on June 14 decreased 61 tons, while copper sup-plies afoat increased 60 tons, making a net decrease in the visible supply of 14 tons to 25% tons, as compared with 60100 tons on May 21.

The Kansas law fixing a maximum rate for the transportation of oil, and fixing sewere penalties for excess charges, was held unconstitutional by the Supreme Court in a decision in the case of the Missourt Pacific Railroad Company against J. W. Tucker, of Cawker City, Kans. The railroad held that the act was confiscatory and multifarious and in violation of the Federal Constitution.

In violation of the Federal Constitution.

In the case of those railroads with respect to which the State rates are held to be conflicatory, the railroad commissioners and the Attorney General of Missouri are given permission to apply to the court whenever it shall appear that by reason of a change in circumstances the rates fixed by the State's act are sufficient to yield reasonable compensation.
